Memorial University of Newfoundland invites applications for a permanent tenure-track position in the University Library System.

Memorial University Libraries Public Services Librarian
Ferriss Hodget Library, Grenfell Campus, Corner Brook

Memorial University of Newfoundland Libraries seeks an innovative, enthusiastic and user-focused Public Services Librarian.

Duties:

This position reports to the Associate Dean of Libraries for Grenfell and Harlow Campus. Duties include, providing reference services to undergraduate and graduate students, faculty, and the public; designing and delivering library instruction both in-person and virtually; collection development; copyright assistance; assessing the potential use and implementation of emerging technologies within the Grenfell library; outreach and engagement activities, and partnership building. The Public Services Librarian also serves on Memorial University Libraries, Grenfell Campus and university-wide committees and working groups.

Qualifications:

Essential: An MLIS degree or equivalent from an ALA accredited institution; excellent interpersonal and communication skills; ability to work collaboratively as part of a team; and a demonstrated ability to deliver a high-level of customer service. Desirable: Experience working in an academic library setting and/or delivering library instruction; familiarity with the Copyright Act as it applies within libraries, archives, and educational institutions; experience with web editing and development; experience with Indigenization and reconciliation.

Who we are:

Memorial University is one of the largest universities in Atlantic Canada. As the province’s only university, Memorial plays an integral role in the education and cultural life of Newfoundland and Labrador.

The Ferriss Hodget Library is located on Grenfell Campus in Corner Brook. Grenfell Campus is a student-centered and sustainability-driven campus that attracts a diverse and growing community of enthusiastic students, staff and faculty who have made Grenfell their campus of choice for education or employment. Grenfell’s mission is to enrich the personal, economic and cultural lives of the Grenfell community through the highest quality education, the vigorous pursuit of new knowledge, and through greater engagement with the people of the western region, Newfoundland and Labrador, Canada and beyond. Our campus values collegiality, collaboration and a positive work-life balance. For more information about Grenfell Campus, please see www.grenfell.mun.ca. We acknowledge that the land on which Grenfell Campus resides is in traditional Mi’kmaw territory, and we acknowledge with respect the diverse histories and cultures of the Beothuk, Mi’kmaq, Innu, and Inuit of this province.

Grenfell Campus Library is one of six libraries that make up the Memorial University Libraries system. Memorial’s librarians are forward-looking and dedicated professionals, committed to high standards of service. Our mission is to support the University’s research and teaching agenda and student success at all levels. For more information about Memorial Libraries, please see www.library.mun.ca/.

The Ferriss Hodgett Library is also responsible for supporting students and instructors travelling to the University’s Harlow Campus, situated in the quaint, historic town of Old Harlow, Essex, UK. The Harlow Campus is used to offer programs, such as Theatre and Visual Art, and as a base for faculty members and graduate students conducting research or further study abroad. For more information about the Harlow Campus, please see www.mun.ca/harlow/.

Benefits:
This is a tenure-track appointment. An appointment at the rank of Librarian I or II is anticipated. Salary ranges as of August 31, 2021, are $59,210-74,204 and $67,778-91,340 for Librarian I and II respectively. Actual salary will recognize experience and qualifications.
